Background

An Tung was a youthful temple guard apprentice in Tianjing. He was given up to the temple at a young age as is traditional, to serve and guard it for his entire life. He still bears the temple guardian tattoos applied at age 6.

He was captured by a cult and made part of an evil ritual. Varian Jeggare, the Chelaxian count, came across this during his travels in Tian Xia and freed the boy; he swore to serve the Count until he was a man. He ended up back in Cheliax guarding the often-absent Count's holdings. They gave him the Chelishized name of Antonius.

He came of age recently and has gone out to find his destiny by following the footsteps of Irori. His "Uncle's" life of being a profligate Chelaxian and Pathfinder did not appeal to him; his ascetic youth made him long to make more of a difference in the world. He went to the Irorium in Absalom and came across the Tempering Hall, and the lomedaeans told him about the Crusade and he came on out.

Antonius has happily adopted his Chelaxian name and demeanour. He wears a monk's robe, but it's a black and red Chelish design (like a Roman monk's robe with red tunic and black scapular). He stoically ignores it when he gets stick for being a 'devil worshipper' from ignorant locals.
