Background

Tabregon Korkuvan was born in the River Kingdoms, the child of an elven ranger from Kyonin and a human huntsman. He was born with a club foot and could not learn his parents' arts of combat and woodcraft, so he was set to watching the goats as the foraged in the waste-lands. He was only ten when he found a strange, half-rusted sword medallion in the forest. He picked it up and was overwhelmed with a vision of a mighty woman warrior, both terrible and beautiful. She touched the medallion, transforming it into solid silver, then vanished.

From that day onward, Tabregon was gifted with a healing touch. He gained a reputation as a healer among the people of his father's village, though they still disparaged him as a half-blood. Tabregon learned what he could of the world around him, always looking for the destiny he was certain lay ahead of him.

Three years ago a pair of wrecker demons attacked his home village, brought to Golarion by the arts of an evil sorcerer. The creatures laid waste to the place, killing any who could not flee in time. By the time they moved on, Tabregon knew what his destiny was: he was to put a stop to the forces that invoked such creatures. He traveled north along the Sellen River and through Egede, looking for a way to join in the struggle against the Worldwound. He was able to make his way to Kenabres, working as a traveling healer, arriving only a week before the start of the campaign.
